DOMESTIC.

The Arctic Weather.

Baltimore, January 13th.—For two days the port of Baltimore has been blockaded by ice, except for heavy steamships. Ice is reported very firm sixty miles down Chesapeake Bay. The result is barren markets and a large decrease in articles of food, which are supplied in wholes. which are supplied in whole or part by way of the bay.

New Orleans, January 13th.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Indian Territory says: Reports from ranges are to the effect that the cold weather has been particularly that the cold weather has been particularly severe on the cattle interests. In the Cherokee Nation, where the greater part of the stock range is centered, the loss is heavy, nearly every stock man losing a number of cattle. The McClellan Cattle Company has lost many nead of cattle, as have also all the members of the Cherokee Live Stock Association. In the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations the loss has also been great. The cattle have wandered for miles and in over for many days, and want of water and food, together with the bitter cold, have combined to cause the death of unnum bered head of cattle and horses. Alto-gether the cold snap has been most disastrous to the stock-raising interests in Indian Territory. JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), January 13th.—The weather is much milder to-day. The lowest temperature recorded at the Signal Service office last night was 21°. This gradual rise of temperature will minimize the damage of the excessive cold of Sunday and Monday, and it is now believed that beyond the loss of fruit on the trees and the blighting of the leaves, the orange trees have suffered no material damage. trees have suffered no material damage. Reports throughout the orange section say the fruit on the trees was frozen, but the gradual thaw will save the trees, except the

The White Cigarmakers. NEW YORK, January 13th .- C. Van Guelpin, delegate from the White Cigarmakers' Association of California, has abandoned the scheme of advertising for men to pay their own fares to San Francisco. He said to your correspondent this morning: "I found that I could never get men enough that way; besides, the people came to the conclusion that they could not get along without the help of the International Union, and in about two weeks I shall head a delegation of 200 cigarmakers for San Francisco. They will be taken from all parts of the country, and are selected by branches of the International Union. I have received a letter from San Francisco, the scheme of advertising for men to pay have received a letter from San Francisco, telling me that I could find 200 cigarmakers at Grand Rapids, Mich., willing and anxious to go to California. I ascertained that there were only 98 cigarmakers employed there, all together, so I did not make the trip. California can get just as many men as she wants from the East to take the place of the Chinese. Now that the question of Unions is settled, there is no objection in the way. Another Freight War.

NEW YORK, January 13th.—Notwith-standing the assurance given to Commissioner Cannon by representatives of the transcontinental lines here that rates would be firmly maintained up to the February meeting of the pool, your correspondent earns that a cut of 20 per cent. has been offered by several lines to several of the largest dry goods and clothing houses in this city. It is believed that this is only the initial step of what will be a general fight. Snippers have not responded to the proposed cut. One of them said this morning: "We can get 20 per cent. now, and 50 per cent. if we wait." It seems pretty gen erally understood among them that rates will soon be extensively cut.

The Mad Dog Scare. New York, January 13th .- Three children are reported to have been bitten by a mad dog yesterday in Mathawan, N. J., the ne village in which young Bucklin, now in Paris under Pasteur, was bitten. This intensifies the scare throughout eastern New Jersey. The Herald says: The storm Saturday, and the many marine disasters. caused great anxiety among the parents of the Newark children who sought the treatment of Pasteur, and who sailed from Havre on Saturday week.

Dr. Mott writes to the Herald urging immediate action by the friends of the American Pasteur Institute in introducing the Pasteur treatment here. He says several lives might have been saved in this country had early action been taken. The distance to Paris from California or any of the re-mote Western States is too great to justify the hope of a cure for dog-bitten victims of A Negro Murderer Jumps from a Train and is Killed. Sr. Louis, January 13th .- Matthew H. others, attracted by the fall, entered. Gallogly yesterday procured a heense to marry Apperson's sister-in-law, Carrie Briceland. He began drinking then, and kept it up to-day. When he appeared at the house of the expectant bride, he was badly intoxicated, and Apperson took him to an upstairs room, and remonstrated against his marrying his (Apperson's) sister-in-law while in that condition. This enraged Gallogly, who said: "Somebody has been opposing this match all the time," and raising a chair he fairly brained his companion. He was promptly arrested by others present. The Health of the State. Dr. Gerrard G. Tyrrell, Permanent Secretary of the State Board of Health, in his

the following remarks relative to the health of the State and prevailing diseases: The mortality list for the month of December shows a decided increase over last month, which may be ascribed to the heavy rains and the cold, damp weather which characterized the meteorological condition of the month. It will be noticed that the increased that the increased death rate was chiefly among those suffering from diseases of the respiratory organs, and more particularly among those advanced in years, who, from their declining vitality, readily succumb to even slight attacks. Among eighty-six localities sending in reports, we find that The Arctic Weather.

BALTIMORE, January 13th.—For two days the port of Baltimore has been blockaded by ice, except for heavy steamships. Ice is may be readily inferred.

Reports from ninety different localities continue to show an almost entire absence of epidemic disease in the State, many of our correspondents remarking that during their sojourn of years in California they never experienced such a continual absence of disease as has prevailed for some mouths past. nonths past.

Diarrhea and dysentery, hitherto so prevalent, is now limited to few localities, and in these the disease is of a mild character, and for the most part dependent upon local conditions. Scarlet fever prevails quite extensively in Shasta, Millville, Cottonwood, Downieville, Tehama county, Spadra, Azusa, Los Angeles and Riverside Measles are quite prevalent in Pomona and have appeared in Millville. Small-pox was reported in Lakeport— three cases being so reported. Our corre-spondent, Dr. D. W. White, at once comnenced a thorough investigation into the truth of the report and visited the patients; he at once discovered that the cases were not smallpox, but chickenpox of a rather severe character. This opinion was confirmed by Dr. G. T. Mason, and the community at once relieved from what might have been a smallpox panic. We again take this occasion to urge upon our correspondents the necessity of vaccinating those vaccinated in their vicinities Diphthera continues apparently unabated in San Francisco, and prevails quite extensively in Santa Cruz, Modesto, Los Gatos, San Diego, Santa Rosa, Colton, Plymouth, College City, Etna Mills, Rocklin, and Amador City. The deaths from this discount in months of the control ease this month outnumber by two-thirds those from typhoid fever in this State, which shows an amount of apathy and carelessness in the precautions which should be taken to prevent its spread that is almost criminal. There is no reason whatever why this disease cannot be controlled and confined to the person afflicted. Our correspondents in the infected districts are all reliable educated physicians, fully alive to the sanitary necessities of the cases, and unsparing in their efforts to isolate and disinfect the disease, but until the public is as thoroughly instructed in the contagiousness of diphtheria, and looks upon it with as much dread as it does the smallpox, the infection will be permitted to diffuse itself and valuable lives be unnecessarily lost.

Croup prevails in the several localities that are afflicted with diphtheria, and no doubt from the same cause. The deaths from it keep steady pace with those from diphtheria diphtheria.

Erysipelas seems to prevail to a slight extent in Truckee, Santa Maria, Calico, Amador, Lincoln, Galt, Williams, Vallejo, Shasta, Crescent City, Martinez, Etna Mills. Red Bluff and Livermore; the type is mild and attended by a very trifling mortality.

Typhoid and typho-malarial fevers, which may be classed together, prevailed to a limited degree; they are mentioned in the reports from Red Bluff, Angel's Camp, Ione City, College City, Igo, Vallejo, Fort Bidwell (Siskiyou county), Williams, Sacramento and San Francisco. The type is not severe and the mortality limited.

eases of the respiratory organs, as might be expected at this season of the year, prevailed to a considerable extent throughout the State, and their fatality is proportionate to the lowness of the temperature and the presence or excess of moisture and fog. The relations, however, between the weather and diseases are not always uniform, much depending upon the environment of the patient and his constitutional energy.

Whooping-cough is becoming quite prevalent, which indicates somewhat the truth M. Pasteur refuses to inoculate Sullivan, as seventy days have elapsed since he was vast experience in London as physician to the Great Ormond-street Hospital for Chil-dren, that where epidemic catarrh is prevalent there whooping cough is contagious, says that the decree granting amnesty to Anarchists will be signed to-morrow.

and whatever is specific resides not in the cough, but in the catarrh, of which it is the cough, but in the catarrh, of which it is the signal. On the other hand, epidemic whooping-cough, says Dr. West, another equally famous authority on children's diseases, very frequently succeeds epidemic catarrh, the former disease being gradually evolved out of the latter, and adds: "The persistence of the cough, long after the subsidence of the catarrh, is one of the first signs of an epidemic of the whooping-graph." Whether we look was at the catarrh. cough." Whether we look upon whoopingcough as purely convulsive in nature, associated with catarrh, or as the result of a specific germ derived from or generated by a pulmonary catarrb, we know that it is from Europe and the United States has to be paid for in remittances of Mexican dollars, because the agricultural interests of infectious disease, by the isolation of those of the soil on a large scale. THE CASE OF THE SHOEMAKERS

The impression prevails at the East that Chinese skilled laborers are better, or as good, workmen than white operatives in like trades. Some time ago we published an extended report from a jute works company at Oakland disproving this belief, so far as work in that factory was concerned. It was there found that the better product of the labor of the white workman more than compensated for the increased cost of his employment. The State Labor Commissioner is now engaged in an investigation upon the same plane, and is taking the testimony of competent witnesses, under oath, on this important point. The industry he is now looking into, is that of shoemaking. One of the first witnesses examined was a dealer who has been in the business in San Francisco for nine years. He swore that the white operatives in the shoe business in that city are but 1,000 as against 5,000 Chinese workmen. That the Chinese workers are steadily increasing in number, and the possibility of white apprentices gaining places, or enjoying opportunities to learn the trade are as steadily narrowing. A good white worker at the trade should earn $21 a week, but he could not possibly live on the ten cents a day that suffices for the needs of the coming into California from the East country, and the fact has caused the San Jose that the white workman does one-third more work than the Chinaman, and that the product of his labor is of a much better quality. The witness exclaimed at this point, "There is no comparison between the work. The white work is very much superior." This sworn statement would scarcely be made were it not accurate, since it is so easy to controvert it, if exaggerated. Another manufacturer, who has been in the business twenty years, testified that he employs from 75 to 100 hands the year round, and no Chinese are among them. But he complained bitterly of the competition of theChinese factories, with their cheep labor. It forces him to the figure of $141 a week for his workmen, though he is anxious to pay more. The Superintendent of a shoe factory testified also, that in his place he has both white and Chinese operatives; that the latter earn $7 a week, and the former $15, and that the white men done-third more and a great deal better work—indeed, the Chinese, he said, are not fit for fine work.

There was other similar testiment, but the congel has been quoted to emphasize the statement that in the shoemaking line the Chinese are absorbing the business, and that they cannot, and do not, furnish as good a quality of product as the white laborers in this industry. It was agreed by all the witnesses that the reintroduction of the State when the connection of the State work—indeed, the Chinese, he said, are not fit for fine work.

QUARTZ MINING AND THE HY. DRAULIC INTEREST.

The Grass Valley papers are much concerned about the demand of the hydraulic miners that drift and quartz miners shall San Francisco and vicinity. He is authorized join hands with them. This was outlined it will be proposed to amend them at the in a recent address of the Miners' Association, in which they said:

The two latter classes of mining (drift and quartz mining) have in the aggregate, and are now, supplying as much, if not more, material (for filling rivers, etc.) than the hydraulic mines, and action by the Federal Departments tending to hamper or obstruct the business of hydraulic mining will of necessity apply to all kinds of mining.

Grass Valley Tidings, which flatly denounces it as untrue, and charges that the Miners' Association is making a last desperate effert to force the quartz miners into antagonism with the people of the valley on the debris question. The Tidings says: meetings of fruit-growers upon the subject All the quartz mines worked in Grass Valley do not color the waters of Wolf creek two miles below the lowest mill discharge into the stream. Quartz tailings are most generally banked, and it pays to bank them. All the dirt and rock ever taken out, in all time so far, of the quartz mines of this county, would not equal in bulk the dirt that one first-class hydraulic mine will the dirt that one first-class hydraulic mine will wash away in one week's time. wash away in one week's time So far as the people of this valley are

The valley press and The President will give a state dinner to his people have accepted it as true that they do not contribute to the nuisance that is blotting out the navigability of the Sacra- the hands of the shippers, and to retain mento river. They have not, and do not now believe that quartz and drift mining are dangerous to those interests, and have over and again so declared. We have now the statement of the Grass Valley Union that "while it is true that quartz mining has not furnished much of this material, drift or placer mining has to a very great extent." The same paper adds that the attack by the anti-hydraulic people is against all mining that discolors the water. This is not true. It is against those influences that have come under the ban of law as declared by the Courts of the land; but there has been, we repeat, no attack whatever on quartz and drift mining-on the contrary, they have been specially excepted. The Grass Valley Union insists that the recent finding of the North Bloomfield Company in contempt was because it was working by drifting, which was not excepted by the United States Court, from its mandate of injunction. To all this the Tidings responds whenever a war is begun upon drift and quartz mining, it will be time enough William Baldwin has been sentenced to be to defend. And this is good advice. The present effort unquestionably is to strengthen the hydraulic mining interests as against the valley by pulling in the quartz and the drift miners, who are not

and have not been assailed by the valley. THE CITRUS FAIR-A SUGGESTION.

It is a good idea to send the exhibits at exhibited. But we suggest that as they will there be placed in a larger hall, and as expectation concerning them has been raised to such a pitch, that their volume be increased. The trath is, that three times the fruit can be shown. The people of this city can, and we are sure they willif asked by the committee in charge, send in at the close of this fair new and additional samples. Instead of a plate or two from a given spot, we can just as well as not send twice the quantity. The exhibit, it is true, will be no more representative, but it will be more effective, with fresh foliage added, and there is everything in the effect to be produced. We have led our San Francisco friends to expect a great deal, and we must not permit the exhibits, crowded into a single narrow hall, to be belittled by display in an immense building, such as the Mechanics' Pavilion. or Platt's Hall. The Sacramento committee ought to firmly insist that the display be made in the business section of San Francisco, say on Montgomery or Kearny streets, or in the region of the junction of those streets with Market, for this is the kind of a "show" to which it is most desirable that the business men shall go. If placed far out, as at the Mechanics' Pavilion, it will become simply an evening display for the merely curious. By all means let the exhibits be sent to San Francisco, and by all means let the people of Sacramento and vicinity duplicate their exhibits, and the two or three hundred who have sent in none, and yet who have citrus fruit at command, now contribute to the common end.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE,

Dr. Munhall's Meetings. tor at his first meeting at the Congrega-tional Church yesterday afternoon. Dr. Munhall is a middle-aged man, of medium size and heavy build, a pleasing talker and a good singer. His style is straightfor-ward and direct—business-like and forcible; while his manner is intense and earnest—a make-up calculated to impress deeply with the man's sincerity. His afternoon address was addressed mainly to Christian workers, his topic being, "Consecration for Service." It was an earnest appeal for faithful Christian endeavor during the revival The church was well filled for the even-duties growing out of the revival. He pleaded for a knowledge of men and a knowledge of God's Word as a requisite of effectiveness; also for faithfulness and con-science in God's service. The sermon was altogether a searching inquiry along the line of the Christian life, and was replete magnetic, fearless in his statements, always

Dr. C. E. Stone, of Marysville whose exhibit has attracted so much attention, says: The church was well filled for the evening service. The first half hour was devoted to a praise service, led by Mr. Northup, who comes with the evangelist to lead the singing. This praise service was announced as a regular order.

After prayer by Dr. Munhall and a solo by Mr. Northup, Dr. Munhall announced his text—James i., 22: "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." OREGON. Strange Cause of Death.

PORTLAND, January 13th .- This morning a death occurred in South Portland from a remarkably strange cause. The two-yearold daughter of John Hannan, a teamster, early in the summer began to eat earth, for which it developed an inordinate appetite. Neither punishment, nor kindness, nor threats could break her of the habit. When confined to the house she would scrape the mud from the other children's shoes and and from the other children's shoes and eat it. Three weeks ago her parents began the strictest watch, and the child was permitted to eat only wholesome food. Her appetite was good, yet she began to grow thin, and a sort of jaundice set in. The child grew weaker and weaker, until this morning it died. The parents would not permit a post mortem, but it is the opinion of the control of the contr

How Coasts Have Formed.—In a paper on the history of the development of coasts a German geologist, Dr. Fischer, reaches the conclusion that where coasts have been formed by the erosive action of waves and streams terraces and flat surfaces are the prevailing characteristics, with semicircular bays of small radius on terraced coasts and large radius on flat coasts. Where other features exist they are mainly attributable to subterranean movements and comparatively recent changes in the level
